Section 2.1 Definitions. The following words and phrases shall for all purposes of this section have the following meanings:

- (a) Dogs include animals of all ages, both female and male which are members of the canine or dog family.
- (b) Owner means every person, firm partnership or corporation, owning, keeping or harboring a dog within the corporate limits of the city.
- (c) A vicious animal is "unconfined", as the term is used in this section, if such animal is not securely confined indoors or confined in a securely enclosed and locked pen, as described herein after or structure upon the premises of the owner.
- (d) Vaccination means an injection of any vaccine for rabies approved by the state veterinarian and administered by a licensed veterinarian or agent of the health officer.
- (e) A vicious animal as the term is used in this section means:
  - (1) Any animal with a demonstrated propensity, tendency or disposition to attack, to cause injury, or to otherwise endanger the safety of human beings or domestic animals; or
  - (2) Any animal, which attacks a human being or a domestic animal on one or more occasions without provocation.
- (f) Muzzle when required by this chapter, a muzzle shall be of appropriate material with sufficient strength to restrain the dog from biting and no such muzzle employed shall be made from any material or maintained on the dog in any manner so as to cut or injure the dog.
- (g) Collector means the city revenue collector or his or her duly authorized agent.

Section 2.2 Vicious dogs. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person to keep within the corporate limits of city any vicious animal unless the said animal is securely confined indoors or confined within a pen upon the premises of the power. The pen shall have secure sides and a secure top. If the pen has no bottom secured to the sides, the sides must be embedded in the ground no less than twelve (12) inches.

No person owning, harboring, or having the care of a vicious animal shall allow or permit such animal to go unconfined on the premises of such person.

No person, owning, harboring, or having the care of a vicious animal shall allow or permit such animal to be loose unless it is securely leashed with a leash no longer than four (4) feet in length. No person shall permit a vicious animal to be kept on a chain, rope or other type of leash outside its kennel or pen unless a person is in physical control of the leash. Such animal may not be leashed to inanimate objects such as: Trees, posts, buildings, etc. unattended. In addition all vicious animals on a leash outside its kennel or pen must be muzzled by a muzzling device sufficient to prevent such animal from biting persons or other animals.

Any person found guilty of violating this section shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or more than One Thousand dollars ($1,000.00) plus court cost or imprisoned not more than sixty (60) days or both. In addition, any vicious animal which attacks a human being may be ordered destroyed when, in the Court's judgment, such vicious animals represent a continuing threat of serious harm to human beings. It shall be affirmative defense if the intended victim of any attack has made an unlawful entry into the dwelling of the owner.

Section 2.3 Number of dogs. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to own, keep or harbor more than five (5) dogs over three (3) months old within the corporate limits of the city except that this provision shall not apply to proprietors of dog, hospitals and veterinarians when such dogs are kept upon premises used by such dog hospital and veterinarians as their normal place of business. Keeping on the premises of the owner of more than five (5) dogs shall be prima facie evidence of violation of this section and the burden of proof shall be on the owner to show the ages of such dogs.

Section 2.4 Vaccination required. All dogs from three (3) months of age kept in the City of Brookland shall be vaccinated at least once a year against rabies and it is made the duty of all owners of dogs or persons having the possession or control of dogs within the city to have such animals vaccinated with vaccine against rabies in an amount, quantity and quality to be approved by the state veterinarian. It shall be the duty of said owner or person having the control of said dog to cause a metal vaccination tag to be securely attached around the dog's neck and kept there at all times.

Section 2.5 Dogs to be confined. From and after the passage of this chapter, any person owning, possessing or keeping a dog or dogs, whether vaccinated or unvaccinated, licensed or unlicensed, shall confine such dog or dogs within an adequate fence or enclosure or within a house, garage or other building or shall confine such dog or dogs by a chain or leash affixed to the dog's collar and attached to some substantial stationary object adequate to prevent the dog or dogs from running at large.

Section 2.6 Collar and tag required; disposition of untagged dogs. All dogs within the corporate limits of the City of Brookland, Arkansas, shall be required to have attached to a collar or harness a tag which shall state the name, address, and telephone number, if applicable of the owner.

Any dog or cat picked up without a tag shall be considered to be a stray or abandoned dog or cat for the purposes of this section and may be humanely destroyed after five working days unless reclaimed by its owner within that period.

Section 2.7 Running at large. No person owning, possessing or keeping a dog shall allow the same to run at large within the City of Brookland. Certified Police Canines being utilized by law enforcement personnel in a valid law enforcement function or incident are exempted from the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 2.8 Animal control officer; duties. There is hereby created the position of Animal Control Officer. The Animal Control Officer shall be entitled to additional help as needed. This help may include the Brookland Police Department or any other city employee.

Appointment of the Animal Control Officer shall be by the Mayor, subject to the consent and approval of the Brookland City Council. The Animal Control Officer shall exercise the powers and duties as provided in this ordinance and in addition thereto shall perform such duties as may be delegated to him by the Mayor and/or City Council. He or she shall operate under the authority of the Brookland Police Department but shall not be a regularly commissioned police officer.

It is hereby made the duty of the Mayor and Animal Control Officer to provide a suitable place to be known and designated as the "City Dog Pound" to carry out the provisions of this ordinance and including the construction of a suitable number of individual pens where particular dogs may be kept separate and apart from the remainder.

Section 2.9 Dogs impounded – how redeemed. The owner of any dogs impounded hereunder may redeem the same by paying all costs, charges and penalties assessed, if any, that have accrued up to the time of making the redemption, including the cost of having the dog vaccinated and when all said charges have been paid it shall be the duty of the pound keeper to release said animal.

Section 2.10 Public notice. Immediately after impounding any dog hereunder, it shall be the duty of the pound keeper to enter upon the records of the pound in a book, to be kept by him for such purposes, the date of impounding, a description of the dog impounded, and a record as to whether or not such dog has been vaccinated and tagged as required by the ordinances of said city. Said pound book shall be open to the public for the inspection of any interested party.

Section 2.11 Claiming impounded animal. Any person owning, possessing or keeping an animal which has been allowed to run at large and which has been impounded may retrieve such animal from the City Pound by payment of a fee of Thirty-Five Dollars ($35.00). The cost of reclamation shall increase to Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for the second (2nd) offense and upon the third (3rd) offense, the penalty shall be One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and the Animal Control Officer shall issue a charge of eight dollars ($8.00) per day shall be levied for each animal held over twenty-four hours. The reclamation of two or more animals by the same owner of household shall constitute separate charges.

Section 2.12 Diseased dogs; disposition. The Animal Control Officer shall immediately take any injured, ill or diseased dog to the veterinarian who shall examine the dog or have the agent or employee examine the dog and shall determine whether or not the dog has contacted a disease or illness which is infectious or contagious to other animals or humans or is injured to such an extent that the dog will not recover from its injury or is in severe pain and if it is determined by the veterinarian or his agent or employee that the dog had contracted an infectious disease or is so injured or is in severe pain as stated above, the veterinarian or his agent or employee shall immediately and humanely destroy the dog.

Section 2.13 Dogs suspicion rabid. Any dog or dogs having rabies or symptoms thereof or suspected of having rabies or which has been exposed to rabies shall immediately be released by the owner or custodian of such dog or dogs to the police or Animal Control Officer of the City of Brookland for disposal or confinement in veterinary hospital approved by the city for period of time specified by the Arkansas State Health Department or the physician who treats the bite victim, whichever period is longer.

Section 14. Barking and howling. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to keep on his premises, or under his control, any dog which by loud and frequent barking and howling shall disturb the peace and quiet of any person who may reside within reasonable proximity of the place where such dog is kept.

Section 15. Inspection and confinement of certain dogs. When any dog has bitten, scratched or otherwise attacked a person, that person or anyone having knowledge of such incident shall immediately notify the Chief of Police or Animal Control Officer and such dog shall be confined at a veterinary hospital at the expense of the owner for a period of ten days (10) as specified by the Arkansas State Health Department or the physician who treats the bite victim. If the owner is able to provide proof of a rabies vaccination by a licensed veterinarian within the past twelve (12) months, and victim waives the requirement of confinement at a veterinary hospital, the animal may be confined, by the owner, and segregated from all other animals for a ten (10) day period. Failure to keep the dog confined will result in impoundment of the animal and a fine of up to Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). Everyday the dog is not confined, as outlined above, may be deemed a separate violation. At the end of the ten (10) day confinement, if confinement is by the owner, the dog must be made available for inspection by the Animal Control Officer. If necessary the Animal Control Officer can order the animal examined by a licensed veterinarian at the expense of the owner.

Section 2.16 Condition of pens and premises. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation keeping or harboring dogs to fail to keep the premises where such dogs are kept free from offensive dog odors to the extent that such odors are disturbing to any person residing within reasonable proximity of the said premises; and it shall be unlawful to allow premises where dogs are kept to become unclean and a threat to the public health by failing to diligently and systematically remove all animal waste from the premises.

Section 2.17 Notice of offenses and violations; arrest. The Police Department, Animal Control Officer or persons employed by such departments are authorized for violation of any portion of this chapter to give to the offender a notice to appear in District Court, criminal division, located in the City of Jonesboro.. Such notice to appear shall state the name and address of the violator and the date of the violation shall contain a statement of the nature of the violation and be signed by the person having knowledge of such violation and who is also a member of one of the departments of the City of Brookland before mentioned. The notice shall contain a printed statement in which the violator promises to appear in the District Court, criminal division, without issuance of any warrant or other process and which statement is to be signed by the violator. Upon failure to sign the agreement to appear, the officer or employee shall swear out a complaint and the usual procedure upon the filing of complaints in the District Court shall govern the arrest and trial of the violator. Upon the violator's signing the agreement to appear and his appearance as set out in the notice, no warrant shall be issued for the arrest of the violator.

Section 2.18 Extension of time to reduce the number of dogs. The provisions of Section 2.3 shall be unenforceable for a period of three (3) months from and after the adoption of this section, thereby allowing owners ample time to provide for quartering and care of dogs elsewhere than on owner's premises in the event owner owns five (5) or more dogs covered by this section.

Section 2.19 Penalties

- (a) Except as provided by subsection (b) herein, any person violating any portion of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished, upon conviction, by assessment of a fine up to Forty Five Dollars ($45.00) plus court cost, or as the court so rules.
- (b) Any person owning, possessing or keeping a dog which has been allowed to run at large within the City of Brookland, Arkansas shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction for the first offense be subject to a fine of Forty Five Dollars ($45.00) plus court cost, or as the court so rules. If that same person is convicted of allowing a dog to run loose within the City of Brookland, Arkansas a second time, said person shall be subject to a fine of no less than Forty Five Dollars ($45.00) plus court cost or as the court so rules, and may be subject to a fine up to Seventy Five Dollars ($75.00) plus court cost, or as the court so rules. If that same person is convicted of a third offense of allowing a dog to run loose within the City of Brookland, Arkansas that person shall be subject to a fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) plus court cost or as the court so rules. Each subsequent offense shall constitute a fine of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) plus court cost or as so the court rules. The fine shall be in addition to all charges imposed upon said party in claiming and retrieving such dog from the city pound.
