

PRELIMINARY PLAT APPROVAL GUIDE AND APPLICATION

APPLICATION CHECKLIST:

1. Letter of intent, which shall include the location and size of the tract, proposed time schedule, the date on which the subdivider proposes to submit his Preliminary Plat for Planning Commission review, and such other information as the subdivider deems important.
2. All requirements from the Preliminary Plat Requirements Checklist (see reverse page).
3. Source of title to the property.
4. $150 application fee plus engineering review fee ($250 or $25/lot, whichever is greater. $2,500 maximum).

PROCEDURE:

1. The application must be filed at least 20 days prior to a regular meeting of the planning commission. Nine (9) complete sets of plans and specifications shall be included. City staff and the planning commission shall review the application and approve, conditionally approve, or deny application within 45 days of receipt of a completed application.
2. The subdivider or designated representative must submit complete construction drawings, and the city shall not issue a notice to proceed until city staff and the city engineer have reviewed and approved the drawings.
2. The Preliminary Plat will be approved by the planning commission when the applicant has provided clear evidence that:
 - The plat conforms to all adopted plans, policies, and ordinances of the City of Brookland.
 - The plat conforms to the regulations contained in this code.
 - The developer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the planning commission the capacity to undertake the proposed improvements.
 - The preliminary plat will not add a financial burden to the City or its taxpayers.
 - The proposed development will not result in off-site improvement costs to the City unless confirmed by written agreement between the City and the developer.
 - All utilities, both public and private, are adequate to handle the demand to be created by the proposed subdivision.
 - All utility structures and streets within the subdivision are designed in such a manner to permit development of adjacent properties and agreements are in place for cost-sharing of required oversized utility structures.
3. Approval of a preliminary plat shall not constitute automatic approval of the final plat
4. Disapproved Preliminary Plats may be resubmitted to the administrative official for review. A written statement providing the reasons for disapproval will be provided to the applicant.
5. Approval of the preliminary plat shall expire 12 months from the date of approvals. If all improvements are not installed by the date expiration, reapproval will be required, unless an extension is given.
